

2008 HKCEE English Mock Exam - Paper 3 (Speaking)

by Edward Fung

Candidate's Instructions

The speaking examination will consist of two parts. Part A, Group Discussion; and Part B, Individual Response. You will be given five minutes to prepare and six minutes for the Group Discussion (for a group of three candidates you will be given five minutes for the discussion). After the Group Discussion, the examiner will ask you one or more questions based on your discussion.

Part A Group Discussion

You have five minutes to prepare for the Group Discussion. You may make notes on the notecard provided. During the discussion you can refer to your notes. DO NOT write anything on this instruction sheet.

You are members of the Photography Club in your school. The club is planning to set up a website for members. Discuss with your group what to include on the website.

You may want to talk about:

- why a website is necessary for the club
- information that is important to include on the website
- how to make the website interesting to members
- anything else you think is important