INSTRUCTIONS

When you complete the following tasks, remember that all your comments must be based on information in the Data File. Your comments must be understood by readers who do not have copies of the Data File to refer to.

Situation and Role

You are Iris Lam, a reporter for your school magazine. Your editor has asked you to research and write an article about an international medical humanitarian organization, Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF).

Task 1: Article (56 marks)

Using information from pages 2 – 10 in the Data File, write an article about Médecins Sans Frontières, including background information, the work it has done and its volunteers' experience.

Your article should be no longer than 600 words. The lines in the Question-Answer Book have been underlined to guide you. You should follow the instructions in the email from your editor on page 2 of the Data File.

Task 2: Table of Underreported Humanitarian Stories (18 marks)

Use information from pages 11 – 12 in the Data File to complete the table of underreported humanitarian stories. Your answers should NOT include any detail or example. You must also write in full sentences using consistent language throughout the table. The first one has been done for you as an example.
